

TopQbank

TDM — Free Sample Questions

Real TDM practice questions with answers and explanations — no sign-up required.

SAMPLE QUESTION 1

A 50-year-old man with Cushing syndrome has hypertension diabetes and muscle weakness. Which complications should be actively managed

- A. Hypertension — Correct answer
- B. Osteoporosis — Correct answer
- C. Diabetes mellitus — Correct answer
- D. Obesity — Correct answer
- E. Untreated depression — Correct answer

EXPLANATION

Cushing syndrome causes multisystem complications requiring comprehensive management

SAMPLE QUESTION 2

A 40-year-old woman with confirmed Campylobacter infection is otherwise healthy. What is the most appropriate management

- A. Azithromycin
- B. Ciprofloxacin
- C. Supportive care only — Correct answer
- D. Vancomycin
- E. Metronidazole

EXPLANATION

Most Campylobacter infections are self-limited and do not require antibiotics unless severe

SAMPLE QUESTION 3

A 60-year-old man presents with severe hypoglycemia and IV access. What is the appropriate treatment dose

- A. a Dextrose 25 g IV — Correct answer
- B. b Insulin 10 units IV
- C. c Glucagon 1 mg IM
- D. d Normal saline 1 L

EXPLANATION

IV dextrose rapidly corrects hypoglycemia

SAMPLE QUESTION 4

A 38-year-old woman presents with migraine lasting 72 hours with nausea and photophobia. Which acute treatment is appropriate

- A. Oral acetaminophen only
- B. IV metoclopramide with fluids — Correct answer
- C. Opioids
- D. Benzodiazepines
- E. Antibiotics

EXPLANATION

Dopamine antagonists are effective for status migrainosus

SAMPLE QUESTION 5

Which of the following are common adverse effects of inhaled corticosteroids in COPD?

A. Oral candidiasis — Correct answer

B. Pneumonia — Correct answer

C. Dysphonia — Correct answer

D. Weight gain

EXPLANATION

ICS can cause local side effects and increased pneumonia risk. Systemic effects like weight gain are uncommon.

Want more TDM questions? Start your free 7-day trial at topqbank.com/qbanks/tdm